What to Bring:

Comfortable clothes appropriate for the weather, layers since we will be going indoors and outdoors during the evening. This event is “rain or shine”, but we will make special accommodations if the weather is poor.

Sturdy sneakers or boots. Please refrain from crocs, flip flops, heels or dress shoes.

Complimentary Zoo water bottle will be provided for each guest, no need to bring personal ones.

Please leave at home:

Outside food or drinks. For dietary restrictions, see below under ‘special requests’.

Glow sticks, necklaces, and flashlights are strictly prohibited for animal safety.

Electronic devices and important personal items.

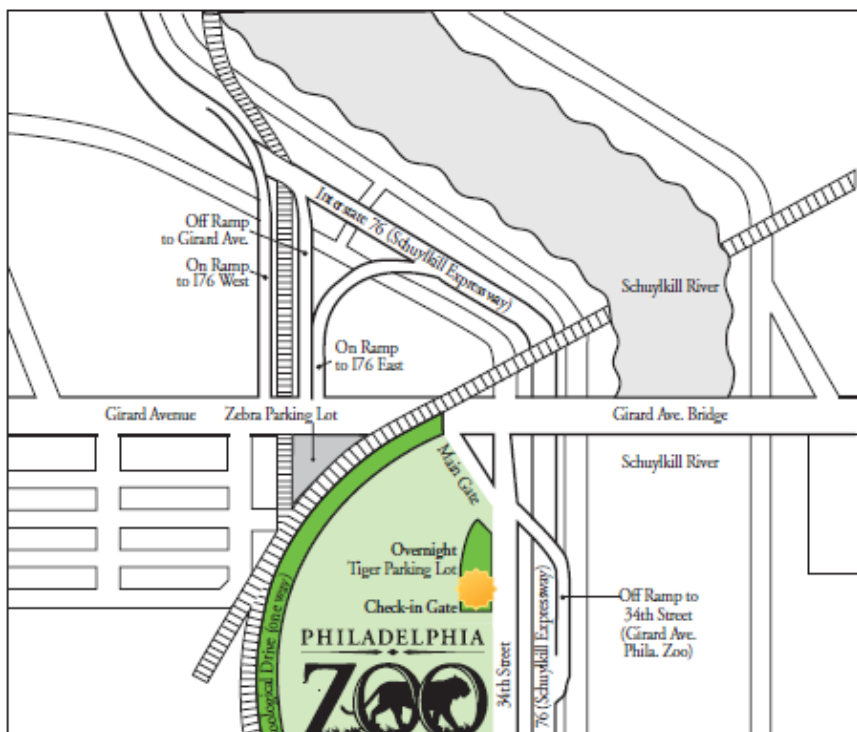

Special Requests:

Wheelchairs: All areas that we visit in the Zoo are wheelchair accessible. The main entrance that we use for overnights is not accessible - however, a staff member can assist you through an alternate entry. Please let us know in advance if you are bringing a wheelchair so that we can expedite your entry experience.

First Aid: Zoo Public Safety officers are trained in First Aid and CPR and are available 24 hours a day. The Zoo is located within minutes of several hospitals for advanced treatment.

Food Allergy/Restrictions: We will be providing a pizza party dinner as well as a snack of nut-free animal crackers, pretzels, and juice. We will make an exception to our no outside food policy if your child has food allergy/restrictions.
