Honoring Michael A. Innocenzo

Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer
Exelon Corporation

This year, Philadelphia Zoo will honor Exelon Corporation's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Michael Innocenzo, as the Global Impact Awardee at our Evening in the Gardens Gala Fundraiser. PECO is one of the Zoo's largest corporate supporters, recently making a commitment of $1.2 million over the next several years. Michael's leadership has had a lasting impact on the Zoo and the innovation of PECO Primate Reserve. Not only has PECO had a substantial financial impact on the Zoo, its preventative tree-trimming program provides needed nutritional browse (leaves, twigs and branches that animals eat) to about 80 different species every June through September.

We invite you to become an event sponsor and honor Michael's leadership promoting a culture of safety and sustainability at the region's foremost energy supplier.

For 150 years, Philadelphia Zoo has opened its historic gates to welcome millions of visitors from all parts of the community, region, country and globe to connect with magnificent animals and inspire action for wildlife and habitats. The Zoo provides an undeniably unique experience where countless families create lifelong memories together and enjoy awe-inspiring encounters with endangered wildlife. As the region's largest living classroom, the Zoo offers a safe place for learning and inspiration for thousands of school children and community members, providing them a glimpse into their impact on the world.
